Teachers' Department.

Conducted in the interests of the teachers of Chariton county. Created by the Chariton County Teachers' Institute. All wide-awake teachers in the county are requested to contribute to this department. All articles for publication should be mailed to Prof. J. P. Coleman, Keytesville, Mo.

THE TEACHER.—He is not always the best teacher who spouts the loudest, talks the fairest, builds up the most plausible theories, likes to see his name in the papers, seeks for notoriety, pants for flattery, or is coddled by higher authority. In addition to a teacher being learned, faithful and hardworking, he should be full of enthusiasm and fire his school with it. When this is accomplished there will be little time wasted in lifting, dragging and driving pupils in their work. That teacher of experience who must beg for a position may set it down that he is largely a failure. The teachers should be an independent being. He should have not only individuality, but independent, confident personality.

EDUCATION.—Education, seeks by social stimulus, guidance and control to develop the natural power of the child, so as to render him able and disposed to lead a healthy, happy and morally worthy life. Education ends in that emancipation of the youth which places him on his own feet. The end of education is to render the individual, as much as possible, an instrument of happiness, first to himself and then to others.

THE SCHOOL PAPER.—It is a lamentable fact that there are many teachers in the county who do not take any school paper whatever. Just how any teacher can get along without some journal of education we cannot understand. He is certainly ignorant of the good things they contain. The teacher should be zealous, wide-awake and fully up with the times. To be this he must keep himself informed as to the educational affairs of the country, and especially of our state, which has made such rapid strides in the last few months. He can only do this by reading the school papers. Every teacher in the county should be a subscriber for the Missouri School Journal. Besides interesting news items, each number contains excellent articles furnished by the leading educators of the state. The educational policy of the state is thoroughly discussed in all its phases, by its enemies as well as by its advocates. The farmer reads his agricultural paper, the physician his medical journal, the politician the political papers; why not the teacher an educational journal?

QUOTATIONS.—"Do not delay, the golden moments fly." "Solid success must be based on solid qualities and the honest culture of them." "Not in the shouts and plaudits of the throng, but in ourselves are triumph and defeat." "The supreme hours unnoted come, unfelt the turning tides of doom." "He is great who is what he is from nature, and never reminds us of others." "The tissue of life to be we weave with colors all our own, and in the field of destiny we reap as we have sown."

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light-house.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at W. C. Gaston's.

Keytesville Public School Notes.

Wonder when our school board will pay us a visit.

Sickness reduced our average attendance last month.

The Latin class is reading Caesar. How is that for only five months' study of Latin?

Willie Drace, better known as "Top-sy," received the best average grade for last month's work.

Gabe Wilson, one of our best pupils, has gone to Salisbury to live with her sister, Mrs. Dodge.

Mary Hancock, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, is getting better and we hope to see her in her seat in a few days.

Our visitors for the past week were: Messrs. M. H. Holcomb, R. Winfree, and Revs. Linn and Ramsey. Come again, gentlemen; we are always glad to have visitors.

Our library continues to increase. We now have something over two hundred volumes, two sets of encyclopedias, two unabridged dictionaries, and our reading desk is covered with good periodicals, daily and county papers.

WINE OF CARDUI, a Tonic for Women.

Odds and Ends.

The man who does a great deed only for pay, will do a bad one just as quick, if the price is raised.

Heaven helps those who daily help themselves, but praying for your daily bread does not entitle you to the whole bakery.

The desire for social supremacy is one of the most pitiful weaknesses in human nature.

In a friendship between two women there is either a man at the beginning or will be at the end of it. Distrust makes miserable those who cherish it. Confidence is a good thing to have, even if it is somewhat abused.

A quarrel between two persons assumes its most serious aspect when a third party comes in who has nothing to do with it.

When you hear a business man say that it does not pay to advertise you will invariably find him a man that never helps in enterprises that tend towards the upbuilding of his community.

An exchange says: "If a doctor makes a mistake he buries it; if a merchant makes a mistake he never tells it; if a lawyer makes a mistake he crawls out of it, but if an editor makes it he puts it upon large pieces of paper for the public to look at."

Men who itch for office are usually badly scratched when voting time comes.

Medlesome people never have medals struck in their honor.

It is said that bees possess the power of memory. So does any one who has ever interfered with them.

A Western lecturer has selected for his subject: "A Bad Egg." This subject often strikes a lecturer unfavorably.

Mr. Hall's Note of Warning.

HUBBARD, Randolph county, Mo., Feb. 1, 1892.—To the members of the Farmers' & Laborers' union of Missouri, and the Farmers' Alliance of the United States:

BROTHERS—Be on your guard. Do not allow yourselves to be committed, compromised or entangled politically.

The meeting to be held in St. Louis, Mo., on the 22nd of this month, under the so-called authority of the National Farmers' alliance, is for that sole purpose.

We did not empower that body to dictate to us how we should vote, nor to commit or bind us to recommendation or otherwise to any political party, and any attempt to do so is without authority and violative of every principle of our order.

I will communicate with you further after we see the result of that meeting.

Pears' Soap

Agreeable soap for the hands is one that dissolves quickly, washes quickly, rinses quickly, and leaves the skin soft and comfortable. It is Pears'.

Wholesome soap is one that attacks the dirt but not the living skin. It is Pears'.

Economical soap is one that a touch of cleanses. And this is Pears'.

All sorts of stores sell it, especially druggists; all sorts of people use it.

Rich Without Money.

Some sensible writers say: "Many a man is rich without money. Thousands of men with nothing in their pockets, and thousands without even a pocket, are rich. A man born with a good, sound constitution, a good stomach, a good heart and good limbs, a pretty good head piece, is rich. Good bones are better than gold, tough muscles than silver, and nerves that flash fire and carry energy to every function are better than houses and land. It is better than a landed estate to have the right kind of a father and mother. Good breeds and bad breeds exist among men as really as among herds and horses. Education may do much to check evil tendencies or to develop good ones, but it is a great thing to inherit the right proportion of faculties to start with. The man is rich who has a good disposition, who is naturally kind, patient, cheerful, hopeful, and who has a flavor of wit and fun in his composition. The hardest thing to get on with in this world is a man's own self. Across, selfish fellow, a despondent and complaining fellow, a timid and care-burdened man, these are all born deformed on the inside. They do not limp, but their thoughts sometimes do."

A CORRESPONDENT of the Unterrified Democrat from Westphalia, Osage county, tells the following: "About three months ago the Schultz brothers left a chicken in a corn crib in a barrel of shelled corn, and a few days afterward the crib was filled up with new corn. Nothing more was thought of the chicken until a few days ago, the corn being used up down to the barrel, they were truly astonished to see the same chicken emerge from its comfortable quarters, where it had been for the past four months without water."

For the remainder of February Prof. Hicks predicts the following weather: Storm conditions will return on the 14th, 15th and 16th, bringing rain or snow on or touching these dates. The cold wave following storms will appear about the 20th. The 26th, 27th and 28th are regular storm dates, sure to be heard from and to bring a cold ending to the month. Much hard, trying weather in February. Prepare for it.

TWENTY-FIVE years ago two farmers, of St. Charles county, Mo., went to court over the ownership of a colt valued at $18. The case has just been decided, and the bill of costs amounts to $1,800. The colt died several years ago.

Lives of others oft remind us. Married life may be sublime.

We trust to be forgiven this parody of lines from Longfellow's immortal "Psalm of Life." Husbands who are wise and thoughtful, know that the happiness of the home depends largely on the health of the mistress of the home. Many are the tasks which daily confront us. How can a woman contend herself against the trials and worries of housekeeping, if she be suffering from those distressing irregularities, ailments and weaknesses peculiar to her sex? Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for these disorders. The only remedy, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case, or money refunded. See printed guarantee on bottle wrapper.

St. Vitus Dance Cured! VILL. SAN ANDREAS, CAL., February, 1890. My boy, 13 years old, was so affected by St. Vitus Dance that he could not go to school for two years. Two bottles of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic restored his health, and he is now attending school again.

REYMOUTH, IND., Oct. 1, 1890. My daughter became epileptic about five years ago through a fright. All physicians' treatment availed nothing, until I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, which at once dispelled the attacks. It is the best remedy I ever used, and I have recommended it to many of such as are suffering from this dread disease.
